

'No other town could stage an event like Candles on the Cobb'

AMAZING SPECTACLE ATTRACTS HUGE CROWD

WITH the ancient Cobb illuminated in the background by 5,000 fluttering candles, a visitor came up to the commentary position, tears streaming down her face, and asked a simple question: "How does such a small town put on such an event like this?"

My answer didn't do the question justice. "We just do it," was all I could think of.

I've commented on four of the five Candles On The Cobb since the idea was first introduced in the year 2000 but Sunday night's incredible event was by far the most emotional of them all. I saw one woman leave the seafront sobbing. And it attracted the biggest crowd I have ever seen on Marine Parade, estimated at between 12,000 and 15,000.

A PERSONAL VIEW by Philip Evans Candles On The Cobb commentator

The answer I should have given to that question was this: "Because we have two extraordinary young men in Phil Street and Mike Higgs."

When I introduced them to the crowd at the end of the evening, the gardens erupted in a crescendo of admiration and pride. I had spent most of the commentary with a lump in my throat and when I poked the microphone in front of Mike Higgs, tears rolling down his face, and asked him to say something to the crowd, I choked.

"I can't do it, Pip," he said just a minute before. But he took a deep breath and paid a touching tribute to his dad, former boatman Ronnie Higgs, such a character of this town, before thanking the crowd for their wonderful support.

No one would have been more proud than Ron Higgs. Phil Street was a little more composed. He recalled when he and Jaffa sat down over a pint of cider or three listening to Elton John's "Candles In The Wind" and asked themselves this question: "How can we turn this into a fundraising opportunity?"

A record year?

And so Candles On The Cobb was born. Since then £60,000 has been raised for national charities and worthy Lyme youth causes. It's too early to give a figure for this year's event but it will surely be a record, ensuring a hefty donation for Help For Heroes, the charity which does so much for the brave young men and women of our Armed Forces injured and maimed in Afghanistan.

Candles On The Cobb has come a long way since 2000. Phil and Mike have recruited a superbly supportive, talented and hardworking team to help make it the most stunning attraction along the south coast.

This week Phil returns to the south of France where he is now living and working accompanied by his wife Dawn and daughter Amy. They depart with the town's best wishes for their new life - and the admiration of the many thousands who saw Lyme at its magical best on Sunday evening. Phil will be back for the 2015 event and Mike will start the fundraising all over again.

For me, this was my swan-song. I will be 66 in 2015 and it is time to stand aside. It's been a privilege to play a small part in such a brilliant event over the years and I will never forget the wonderful memories generated by Candles On The Cobb when Lyme punches far above its weight and is truly at its sparkling best.

JAY Carpenter was born in Axminster, living in the South West all his life before settling in Bridport last year.

The former chef qualified as a healer 12 years ago and now runs a business specialising in energy therapy. The 43-year-old also works for the NHS, specialising in addictions, eating disorders and adult mental health.

He is married to a psychologist who also works for the NHS.

● WHAT is energy therapy?

Energy therapy involves working within the human energy system, or Aura, which has several layers or bodies. It is within this system that I work using a variety of healing tools such as crystals, coloured silk scarves, light-box and torch, flower and gem essences. I work intuitively connecting to a person's energy system, meaning that every session is different and I will most often not know how a session will go until I'm with the person.

● WHO can benefit?

People come for many reasons. Somewhere, within a person's life there will be some disharmony and this can manifest itself as a physical, emotional, or mental symptom which can become a stressor within the body's energy system. My role as a therapist is to offer a safe, supportive and non-judgmental space in which a person can share their issues. It's about helping the person to find how they can best heal themselves. At the very least a session will leave a person more relaxed by having their energy centres re-balanced.

People are not the only ones that benefit - animals too are very receptive and I have worked on cats, dogs and a couple of horses in the past.

● HOW do people react when you tell them you are an energy therapist?

I get a mixture of reactions from raised eyebrows and silence to people launching into 101 questions. Sometimes people sneer thinking that they know all about therapies or I get labelled as a hippy.

● AND how do people react to the therapy?

Reactions after therapy vary. Some people are very quiet, saying nothing except thank you. Some feel very energised and beam with joy. Some go into floods of tears as they have experienced something very deeply or because they have experienced complete freedom from pain after many years, and while this will usually be a short-term effect, the fact that they have had this experience gives them hope that life can be better.

● THERE are so many therapies available to people. How can they choose which one is right for them?

It depends on what a person is seeking support with. For instance, if someone has stiff or achy muscles then it is unlikely they would seek out my services and more likely they would look for someone who offers some sort of massage. Searching the internet and looking at professional associations will help guide a person to what they require. Visiting a health/holistic show is a great way of sourcing treatments as you can see a therapist working in a public area which helps put people at ease and allay any fears of approaching a stranger. Also GPs now refer patients to therapists.

● DO you ever see a regular GP?

I have seen my GP twice in 30 years. I take my health very seriously as we only get one body and it's worth looking after.

● IS there anyone in particular you would like to treat?

I would like to treat Stephen Fry because I admire him for being a great wordsmith and he has been quite open about his depression.

● WHAT gets you up in the morning?

Knowing that I have dreams to chase and do not want to die without making an effort to attain them. Also I have many places that I would like to visit plus I've yet to sell a piece of my own artwork or win a big poetry competition.

● WHAT do you like about living in Bridport?

Living where I am is heaven because I live within walking distance from the town centre, the coast is less than three miles away and I'm surrounded by such beautiful countryside which I am free to explore whatever the season.

● IT was recently reported that middle-aged men in London and the West Midlands were the most unhappy people in the UK. What can they do?

Culturally males are going through quite a change. Years ago they were the breadwinner, there were jobs for life, and they knew where they were placed in life. Now there is pressure placed on them because they have to work longer and jobs are scarce while society tries to tell you that once you hit mid-life you have little to offer the working world. Emotionally, men need to start coming out of their caves and kick off old thought patterns such as the idea that men don't cry. We need to evolve.

● DO you have any guilty secrets when it comes to health?

My guilty secret is to enjoy a steaming mocha coffee and panettone, or when in France to have a fruit tart or chocolate éclair.

Accident triggers road complaint

ROMAN ROAD RESIDENT 'HAD ENOUGH' WITH POOR MAINTENANCE OF SLIPPERY LANE

A COMPLAINT has been made over the state of Roman Road in Lyme Regis after a man injured his ankle when he tripped over on the lane.

Lyme Regis resident Dave Milligan is thought to have suffered a broken

by Francesca Evans
francesca@pemedi.co.uk

or dislocated ankle after falling last week. Roman Road resident Martin Notley heard him shout from inside his house and was them for some time asking them to repair the road, but the biggest problem is the leaking drain.

"We warned them that if they didn't do anything someone would fall and, at about 3pm today, someone fell. We heard his cries from inside the house, he was obviously in a lot of pain.

"It's beyond the pale. We have had enough now.

"The road is used regularly by schoolchildren, mothers with prams and visitors to Travis Perkins and the medical centre.

"They have chosen not to do anything and it's negligent. We warned them that the poor old taxpayer would end up paying the fees when they go to one of these no win, no fee lawyers over an accident like this."

Mr Notley also asked why recent repairs to Haye Lane did not continue up Roman Road.

Dorset County Council told the View From that Roman Road has not previously qualified for repairs but they would be visiting the lane again to look at the problems.

A spokesman said: "Officers will be visiting Roman Road this week to look at the particular problems there.

"We have worked on several of the roads and lanes around Roman Road recently, where we identified clusters of problems. At that time, Roman Road did not qualify under the scheme which ranks problems according to their priority and ensures our limited resources are directed at areas where they can be the most value.

"The Roman Road problem may be due to springs. They can be tricky to deal with as when we solve one problem, they pop up elsewhere."

Missing man found safe after emergency search

LYME Regis lifeboat crew was launched on Saturday to help in searching for a man reported missing the previous evening.

Portland coastguards requested the lifeboat crew to carry out a coastal search because of concerns for the man's safety.

The lifeboat was launched at 12.09pm and searched between Lyme Regis and Golden Cap. Coastguards searched ashore and the teams were joined by the coastguard helicopter.

The lifeboat crew carried out a visual search of cliffs with binoculars, and were stood down at 1.04pm when it was reported that the man had been found safe ashore.

● The lifeboat was also launched the previous Saturday evening after coastguards were alerted that an inflatable with two people aboard was overdue and possibly lost in fog off West Bay.

After launching at 7.06pm the lifeboat crew heard from Portland coastguards that the inflatable had reached West Bay harbour and that the two people were safe.

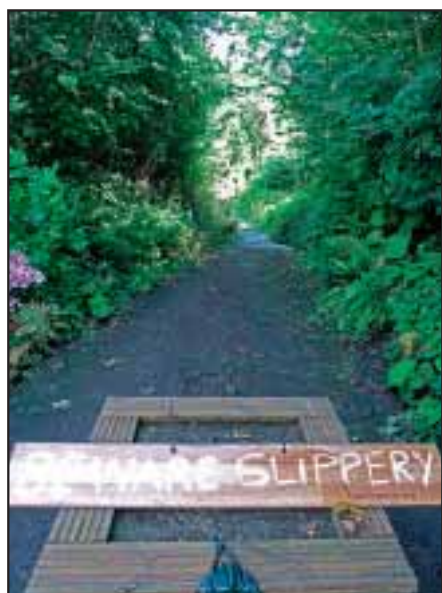

The lifeboat was then stood down and returned to Lyme Regis.

Lost keys at St Michael's

A SET of keys were lost between St Michael's Parish Church and St Michael's Business Centre, off Church Street, in Lyme Regis on Saturday.

The keys were on a chain.

If anyone finds the missing keys, please drop them into the View From offices in St Michael's Business Centre.

■ SLIPPERY SLOPE: Roman Road resident Martin Notley has complained of the lane's poor state or repair and constant drain leakage. The sign reads "Beware slippery" quickly on the scene.

He said he has had a long-running battle with Dorset County Council, via the phone-line Dorset Direct, over the state of the lane, which is potholed and has water constantly running down it.

Speaking after the accident, Mr Notley said: "I have had a long-term battle with the council and others about the maintenance of Roman Road between Uplyme Road and Haye Lane. I have had correspondence with

Lib Dems choose election candidate

MEMBERS of the Lyme Regis and Marshwood Vale Branch of Liberal Democrat have announced that Pat Hicks has been approved as their candidate for the county council elections in May 2013.

Mr Hicks, from Lyme Regis, will be contesting the Lyme Regis and Marshwood Vale seat, currently held by Conservative Colonel Geoffrey Brierley.

The former owner of Castle Wines in Broad Street, Mr Hicks was a

West Dorset district councillor for four years and would like to bring the experience he gained from that time to working for the people of the whole of the Marshwood Vale.

Although he was elected as an Independent candidate for the district council, the local Liberal Democrats branch said he has "always worked well" with them and is now keen to support the work of the Lib Dem team.

Mr Hicks is married to wife Julie and they have two sons, Simon and Mark. For some 20 years, he served with the Dorset Fire & Rescue Service, being station commander for the last 10 years.

He is now a semi-retired businessman, and has acted as vice-chairman of the Lyme Regis Traders Association.

Mr Hicks is concerned that local people need even more help at present because of the economic climate, and reductions in services to the elderly and infirm. Younger people need help because of the lack of jobs, or loss of jobs where some businesses fail.

Concert raises over £200 for charity

A LIVELY concert in aid of Save the Children was held in the Marine Parade shelters in Lyme Regis last Saturday.

The programme of music included a solo from youngster Charlotte Tweedale, followed by Amy Street in her last local performance for some time, as she is moving to France with her parents this week.

The concert also featured Roisin Linnet who played violin and sang accompanied by her father Pete.

Brothers Jake and Harvey Causley gave a polished performance on saxophone and drums, followed by Julian Shaw who sang and played guitar.

Concert organiser Roy Wootton also entertained, singing with his friend Rob on guitar to complete the afternoon.

Money collected totalled £220 for Save the Children.

Mr Wootton would like to thank all those who took part and those who supported the event.

Footballers take to the Thames to support club's refurbishment

FOUR Lyme Regis Football Club supporters took to the water and swam a mile of the River Thames to raise funds for the Seaside.

Club captain and local plumber Adam Caddy; his brother, lifeboatman and town council works supervisor, Elliott Herbert; Rock Point Inn barman Tom Bond and carpenter Dom Rowe, all from Lyme Regis, took part in the British Gas Great London Swim in May.

The mile-long swim was held at the Royal Victoria Dock and took the boys between 30 and 45 minutes to complete.

They raised a total of £1,135 for the football club's ongoing extension project, which they have been helping to complete themselves.

The four handed over a cheque to club chairman Howard Larcombe and secretary Rob Thom earlier this month.

Mr Larcombe said: "Well done to Adam, Elliot, Tom and Dom for their efforts, not just in swimming the Thames and raising this great sum for the club's on-going refurbishments, but for all the time and hard work they have put into helping to complete the extension project over the past few months, as well as being regular supporters of our many fundraising events. "Their support of the club is really appreciated."

■ TROPICAL THEME: Talbot Arms landlord Steve Gardener and staff serving a hog roast at the beer festival, with Hawaiian theme decorations behind despite the rain

Beer festival a success despite the poor weather

THE annual Talbot Arms Beer Festival in Uplyme was heralded another success despite the poor weather.

The extended Bank Holiday festival was held over four nights and three days with a wide range of entertainment.

Ignoring the pouring rain, the event kicked off on Friday night with a Hawaiian themed birthday party for landlord Steve Gardener. A disco followed on Saturday night, with an open mic event on Sunday and 1960s and 70s theme on Monday.

Other entertainment over the weekend included the Uplyme Morris Men, skittles run by Uplyme Football Club and a hog roast, as well as the 40 beers and ciders on offer in the pub's pad-dock.

Mr Gardener said the event had been a success with lots of support, adding: "There's nothing we can do about the weather but we've been having lots of fun."

GCSE students celebrate results day

YEAR 11 students from the Woodroffe School in Lyme Regis celebrated as they collected their GCSE results on Thursday.

The school achieved an "outstanding" set of results with 80.2 per cent of students receiving five A* to C grades - well above the national average and above 80 per cent for the fifth year in a row.

However, the school was hit by tougher marking in English exams seen across the country, meaning a below usual 66 per cent achieved the benchmark figure of five GCSEs including maths and English.

High achieving students still did particularly well this year with 24 per cent of GCSE entries reaching the top A or A* grades.

Top of the class was Tom Gater who received 10 A*s, followed by Eva Blore, Rebecca Riddle and Polly Rodin all with eight A*s and two As.

Rachel Clarke and Alice Jenkin achieved six A*s and three As while Bethany Staples gained five A*s and five As.

Other top performers included Alexander Hall-

by Francesca Evans
francesca@pemedial.co.uk

Hickman (four A*s and six As), Christopher De Bank (four A*s and five As), Tom Kiernan (two A*s and six As), Alex McStea (four A*s and four As), Ellie Pring (three A*s and seven As), Hannah Pullinger (three A*s and six As), Lisa Sargent (four A*s and six As), Lucy Sargent (one A* and seven As), Hannah Simpson (two A*s and eight As), Fiona Sinclair (three A*s and seven As), Sam Urqhart (one A* and seven As) and Tess Voysey (three A*s and seven As).

Headteacher Dr Richard Steward said: "This is an excellent set of results. I am delighted to see that the school has sustained its high levels of attainment and it is a pleasure to see so many superb individual performances."

"As ever, students have worked incredibly hard and one can only admire the commitment and determination of those young people who manage to achieve high grades across such a broad range of disciplines."

As reported in last week's View, this has been a particularly successful year for the Woodroffe School, which was named "outstanding" in an Ofsted report, named as one of 200 National Teaching Schools and celebrated excellent A-level results last week.

Special ceremony for hall extension opening

YEARS of planning came to fruition earlier this month when the extension at St Andrew's Community Hall in Char-mouth was officially opened.

Many local residents gathered outside the hall to see the results of the £70,000 project. They were welcomed by chairman of the parish council, Councillor Mallory

by Francesca Evans
francesca@pemedial.co.uk

Hayter, who then introduced chairman of the hall's trustees, Roy Churchman.

Mr Churchman spoke of the history of the building, originally a church hall, and how David Carter had suggested handing it over to the village to manage themselves following its closure.

He thanked Mr Carter and Louis Rose for their involvement in the hall's history.

Hall committee chairman, Keith Waterson, then spoke about the extension project. The project has seen the front of the hall extended by four metres and the building of disabled toilets and extra storage space for the various community groups that use the facility.

In March 2009 a £50,000 grant from the Big Lottery Fund was received and work started in September 2010.

Mr Waterson thanked West Dorset District Council which donated a further £4,730, as well as those from the community who had donated, the builders, volunteers, hall hirers and all those who had supported fundraising events.

The building's original foundation stone and time capsule dating from 1910, both of which were kept safe during the renovations, now take pride of place in the front wall of the hall. They were unveiled by Gwen Oxenbury.

David Carter then officially opened the new extension in a ribbon cutting ceremony before guests enjoyed refreshments inside.

■ OFFICIAL OPENING: David Carter cuts the ribbon to the new extension. Below, Roy Churchman addresses the crowd and right, Gwen Oxenbury unveils the foundation stone

■ THE Lyme Regis branch of Amnesty International held their annual cream tea on Sunday. Every year, the former Cliff Cottage Tea Gardens re-opens its doors for the special fundraising event, offering supporters excellent views of Lyme Bay as they enjoy their cream teas. This year's event also included a book stall and home produce stall, raising a total of just over £500.

Eyes down at The George for scouts

BOOST FROM BINGO: The George landlord Dean Herbert hands over a cheque to the 1st Charmouth Scouts

REGULAR drinkers and guests at The George in Charmouth got their eyes down last month to raise much needed funds for the refurbishment of the 1st Charmouth Scout group's dilapidated headquarters.

The bingo night was organised by The George's entertainment girls group and landlord Dean Herbert, plus Linda Bearpark and Joan Aldworth. It raised a total of £340 which will boost the scouts' "Going for Gold" campaign, in which they are awarded badges for the more money they raise towards the refurbishments.

Mr Herbert handed over a cheque to the scouts as they returned from their annual summer camping trip at St Gabriel's National Trust site.

Mr Herbert said: "My staff and my regulars are always keen to support local organisations. This seemed an ideal way to have a bit of fun while raising much-needed funds for the cubs and scouts. However, even I was surprised at how well it was supported by the community."

Lyme news briefs...

LYME Regis Gig Club is running a series of five shanty singing workshops in the atmospheric Cobb buildings.

The workshops will lead up to a public performance at the launch of the club's new gig "Tempest" on September 29th, as well as further performances in two local pubs.

Led by a highly experienced, professional singing teacher, this is a great opportunity to sing traditional and new shantys.

No singing experience or even ability is needed, just enthusiasm.

There will be five weekly sessions in the Cobb Room on the harbour wall on Friday evenings from 7.30pm to 9pm, starting this Friday (August 31st) and running until September 28th.

Workshops will cost £6.50 each or £30 for the whole course.

New owners at Aroma Cafe pleased with local response

■ OVERWHELMED BY RESPONSE: John Kellas and Jodie Jackson at Aroma

NEW owners at the Aroma Cafe in Lyme Regis have been delighted with the response they have received from the local community.

John Kellas and Jodie Jackson took on the Bridge Street cafe in June.

Having been regular customers at Aroma because of its focus on special dietary requirements and being child friendly, the couple said it was a "no brainer" when the business went up for sale whilst they were looking for a cafe space in Lyme.

They have since re-decorated the back room and plan to re-brand the cafe and update the children's play area with a maritime theme.

John and Jodie, from Bridport, have kept a wide variety of gluten free and wheat free options on their menu, which is also suitable for vegetarians, and they are hoping to introduce sugar free cakes.

Chef John said he is looking forward to winter, when more local produce and meat will be available to introduce "winter warmers" to the menu. The couple also plan to open for occasional "intimate" evening meals on a booking basis and host theme nights.

They said they are "passionate" about their coffee, using a local roaster and changing their hot drinks menu regularly.

John and Jodie said they have been "really overwhelmed" by the local support and good reviews they have received.

Aroma is open everyday, from 10am Monday to Saturday and from 11am on Sundays.

Christmas comes early for lights fundraisers

□ LYME Regis Christmas Lights Committee raised an impressive £440 at a beach stall last weekend. The stall was held in the Marine Parade shelters, where volunteers sold cakes and bric-a-brac and ran a tombola. The money will go towards hiring this year's festive lights.

Shire House party raises funds for Seaton family

RESIDENTS, staff and visitors to Shire House Residential Home in Lyme Regis enjoyed the sunshine at their annual garden party held earlier this month.

The summer theme included an entertaining show by SG Production, named "Bring Me Sunshine". The performance included favourite numbers, such as "Singing in the Rain", "I Do Like To Be Beside the Seaside" and "There Will Always Be An England", along with musical tributes to each of the countries of the UK and seamless costume changes. There was also a whole set devoted to the Great British weather.

Other activities, including a raffle, tombola and competitions, helped to raise £510.57. Each year, funds raised are donated to a local good cause with this year's chosen beneficiary being particularly close to home for the management and employees of Shire House.

The money will help senior care assistant Ben Durias and his wife, Liza (pictured right), who suffered a severe stroke and brain haemorrhage in 2009 leaving her unable to work. The Seaton couple have five children but are not eligible for financial state benefits, leaving them particularly grateful for Shire House's donation.

Shire House would like to thank everybody who attended and helped make this year's event such a success.

To find out more about the home's chosen good cause, phone 01297 442483.

One final look at Lyme's busiest summer

HERE we are again, the end of August.

After another busy Bank Holiday weekend, visitors return home, children go back to school, traffic calms, the sand is raked over, everything goes back to normal and I write my final column of the year.

Sigh of relief or disappointment? For me, I think it's a little of both.

The few months I look forward to each year always seem to fly by but, despite the mostly disappointing weather, this year's busy programme of summertime events has really kept me on my toes.

Although I didn't start writing this column until June, summer in Lyme really started at the beginning of May with the Fossil Festival. I'm not a fossil fanatic myself but this festival brings thousands into town from far and wide, and saw the Marine Parade shelters transformed into the town's very own "airport" with flights to the ancient Pangea. What a way to kick the season off.

It was then May Day Bank Holiday and, soon enough, the Royal Navy were in town bringing all the pomp and ceremony that was beginning to sweep the country to Lyme. We excitedly welcomed our special guests ashore, along with the first cruise passengers ever to stop in town.

The Jazz, Blues and Beer Festival was next, bringing colour and music to the town as the annual Umbrella Parade made its way through the streets.

Then it was upon us, the big one - Diamond Jubilee weekend. Many of us had been looking forward to the extended Bank Holiday weekend celebrating the Queen's 60 years on the throne for months. With the Royal Navy's recent visit still the talk of the town, how could we top it? But who knew Lyme would pull off its ambitious five-day programme of events with such success?

This weekend brought me my highlight of the summer - joining the Mayor and our visiting Chelsea Pensioners on their boat for the sail past and salute. Lyme's seafaring community really went all out for this - dressing up, decorating their boats and waving flags from over 70 vessels, the most Lyme has seen at once in living memory.

I couldn't quite believe how many people wanted to be a part of the jubilee celebrations and, as a non-sailor, it was fantastic to have the chance to be among them.

And then the five days came to a soggy close and we sighed with relief. A few quieter weeks and smaller events - a boat launch, Thanksgiving Day - and then I was off for a week to sunny Majorca.

July came and it was full steam ahead again. Summer events started to come around quickly - fetes, flower shows and even a flood! Then, on what can only be described as the wettest day of all time, a flickering flame arrived in the rain and drew cheers from thousands.

Looking back on it, the Olympic Torch day seems like such a bizarre event. So many of us lined up, soaked through and still smiling and cheering - laughing even at how ridiculous it all was. I could have jumped in the sea and not been any wetter!

The Real Relay passed through with much more subtlety and then, suddenly, Lifeboat Week was upon us, bringing us the Red Bull Harbour Reach, RAF Falcons and Red Arrows, among other favourite events.

The first Lyme Lympics were held with success and Regatta and Carnival Week followed with another nine days of family fun, topping the major summer events off with the annual carnival procession.

It all came to a close this weekend with Candles on the Cobb. The wind dropped just in time for this emotional spectacular. Five thousand candles lit along the Cobb wall, fireworks, flares and... "summer's over", I thought.

It was a poignant end to my favourite season and the busiest summer I have ever known in Lyme.

Now all the things I associate with autumn are coming around. We have ArtsFest to look forward to this September, council meetings have returned to their regular calendar and the East Devon carnival circuit will keep me and the other View reporters busy over the coming weekends.

Hopefully you've enjoyed your summer as much as me and (one final plug) to keep you going until next year, my "Summertime in Lyme" photo book is still on sale at the Tourist Information Centre and Serendip Bookshop for just £3.50.

2013 will see an inaugural series of cruises out of Bristol Avonmouth by British-operated Ocean Countess. Experience 'traditional, smaller-ship cruises', where the emphasis is on a friendly atmosphere, good food and first-class entertainment on board, while taking in interesting ports of call from which shore excursions are offered. This is what we have on offer on board Ocean Countess – and at superb value prices too!

The ship will be offering six widely varying itineraries, from five to twenty-eight nights' duration, as well as a season-ending overnight 'Taster' cruise to Liverpool. The series begins in some style, with a month-long, winter-warming voyage to the Caribbean – and the mid-Atlantic Azores. This is followed in mid-March by a cruise beyond the Arctic Circle in search of the fabled Northern Lights, an Eastertime 'Iberian Odyssey' to some delightful cities in Spain and Portugal, and an April journey to Western Norway's spectacular fjords. A 'Springtime Gardens' cruise and a week-long 'Celtic Landscapes' voyage complete the ship's programme from the West Country port.

We look forward to the pleasure of your company!

Who are they thinking of - cyclists or pedestrians?

■ COUNCILLORS, who are you thinking of - cyclists or pedestrians?

We have no cycleway into Lyme Regis as the closest defined Dorset route terminates beyond Monkton Wyld, so must assume that any cycle path will begin at the entrance of Cobb Gate car park where, often, chaos ensues (queues for fish and chips, cars in and out, people crossing from one side to the other). Then there is the persistent parker who will wait for a space or will hold everyone up to unload the family.

Then the Cart Road - a line of cars to the right, beach to the left with people sitting on the edge of the road and this is where people just amble along, totally unaware that it is a road where disabled drivers, service and delivery vehicles are wishing to park or driving to the end to turn around. There are distractions all the way - busking point, ice cream sales, food, buckets and spades, three in the first 80 yards. The thatched cottages and Library Cottage on Marine Parade attract attention, as does the stone balancer on the beach. The turning area is a dangerous spot as few are willing to give way.

Through the barrier and Rinky Tinks the road narrows to some 3.5 metres, scarcely sufficient for the hut hirers to sit and pedestrians to maintain two-way progress, although it appears that mostly they sit on the beach, the less able sitting in front of the huts but youngsters dashing to and fro.

Beyond the beach huts the road widens with the hair braider, trampolines, first entrance to the sandy beach and the steps up to the toilets and, of course, the Amusements Arcade. If you've got kids, you have to rein them in here. More ice creams and food on the parade and then Jane's Café - more ice cream and with a queue spilling onto the road. Somewhere here is another busking point before the Royal Standard ice cream queue and the barrier which is made difficult by a table and chairs and the Royal Standard signs.

Once past the barrier you come to a short service road with 2 pubs, a café with as many as eight tables on the road and a shared sitting area serviced across the road. Then three kiosks with lots of A-boards pushing their queues into the road, the entrances to slipway and sailing club followed by a queue for the ladies' toilet. Finally, it's Cobb Square and the Cobb itself.

Where do they park their cycles? Would it not be better to leave bikes at Cobb Gate and walk?

The Cart Road extension was built as a sea defence, not as a road. Will a planning application be required for it to become a cycle path?

On the other hand, if you wish to see the cycle path on Marine Parade, which will have many of the same difficulties as the Cart Road and will not be as popular as you may believe, you will have to lose for the town our cherished "traffic-free" status. Please think hard before you do this as we will never regain it.

Could right become might? Have the proposing councillors tried cycling this route on a busy sunny day?

Would it not be more beneficial for everybody, including all cyclists, if they could secure their bikes at Gun Cliff Walk and walk along the parade to enjoy as others do?

Peter Williams,
Summerhill Road, Lyme Regis

Broad Street accident not related to seafront cycling

■ I SYMPATHISE with Ms Annette Wakely for her injuries. She walked across steeply sloping Broad Street when a cycle race was hurtling down it, and was hit.

The fault, if not hers, presumably lies with authorities who had not made the closing of the street sufficiently obvious.

This has nothing to do with the issue of whether there should be a cycle route along the Cart Road. Yet the August 22nd View From front-page article on the incident was headlined "Seafront cycling an 'absolute nightmare'".

Would you suggest banning cars on Broad Street because of an accident on the A35?

One strong reason for allowing people to get their healthful and pleasurable exercise by riding along the sea front is that it's almost the only level road around here.

I ride up Cobb Road and Springhead Road in Uplyme, but I wouldn't want to discourage others by having to tell them they must get in shape for hills before they can ride anywhere at all.

Guy Ottewell,
Broad Street, Lyme Regis

'Fishy maid would turn heads'

■ I APPLAUD the idea of having a mermaid emblem or logo to represent our lovely town of Lyme Regis.

The land and sea aspect fits perfectly and a witty version of a fishy maid would definitely turn heads and in no time bring Lyme to mind far and wide. The people of Copenhagen have embraced their little sculpture with alacrity and to quote: (it) "is a Copenhagen icon and a major tourist attraction".

As for the shapeliness of our mermaid, surely a cupped chest cannot offend, as depicted on the Wikipedia website, and long hair can come in very useful!

Thanks for carnival week support

■ I WOULD like to offer a big thank you to all those who supported Regatta and Carnival Week this year.

We could not have completed this week of activities without the support of the Lyme community, both residents and traders.

Once again large crowds of holiday makers enjoyed

Lyme Regis at its best - a place that the whole family can enjoy.

Thank you Lyme Regis!

Secretary, Lyme Regis Regatta and

Painter Duncan looking forward to festival opening

■ IN a series of interviews leading up to Lyme Regis ArtsFest 2012 (September 8th to 16th), Anthea Simmons introduces readers to some of the local people involved in the tenth annual festival. This week she meets documentary filmmaker and painter, Duncan Harris.

● WHAT is the story behind your involvement in the arts?

Like a lot of people, I drew as a child and I did do O-level art. My art teacher wanted me to go on and study art but I couldn't see myself earning a living from that and at the time art schools didn't teach the craft of painting, so I read chemical physics at Bristol University instead.

I got a job in the film industry on the technical side and I've been in the business 25 years now. I've done most things - been a cameraman, editor and now a director. I make documentaries and music programmes.

Recent work includes films about Robyn Hitchcock, the English singer-songwriter and guitarist, and multi-disciplinary artists Heather Ackroyd and Dan Harvey. I filmed them creating "FlyTower", their cultural response to climate change in which they grew grass on the Lyttelton Flytower at the National Theatre.

In fact, a lot of my work now has a strong environmental bent to it. I recently filmed "The Ecocide Trial", in which top lawyer Michael Mansfield put actors playing fossil fuel bosses on trial in the Supreme Court in a mock case to explore if ecocide could join genocide as a global crime.

I started painting in 1985, when I got my own flat and had the room. I like to explore texture, colour and light. Oil on canvas or board, really thickly-painted. Wherever possible, I like to paint outdoors, getting down an immediate reaction to what I see. My abstract work has, latterly, been influenced by forms and patterns in the natural world - water, stone, lichens.

I've exhibited in France and the USA as well as the UK and sold paintings all over the world but my main gallery is the Llewellyn Alexander Gallery near Waterloo Station.

● WHAT are your sources of inspiration?

Anything. What's around, what I find, colour and texture.

● WHICH is your favourite gallery and what work of art would you like to own?

The Musée D'Orsay in Paris for that fabulous collection of Impressionists. It's just absolutely stunning. I like the Uffizi in Florence, too, and the Winter Palace in St Petersburg was fascinating, though I wasn't too impressed by all the brown, Victorian stuff.

I'd love to own Renoir's "La Loge" - the wonderful painting of the opera theatre box. But I'd also like a Manet - "Bar at the Folies Bergere" - and a Monet - "Soleil Levant".

● HOW did you get involved with ArtsFest?

We moved down here last year mainly to give the children the sort of education we wanted for them. They are at Woodroffe and it's just a whole different world - creative and inspiring.

I got involved with ArtsFest as a way to get to know people. I volunteered to take on a quadrant of the town to raise sponsorship for the event, those red dots in the brochure that Lyme's shops and businesses have very generously bought to show their support. The response was great! My work is going to be in Lyme Bay Dentistry, Cinderella's and Rumours Restaurant and it's good to be part of such a vibrant, inclusive event.

● WHAT are you looking forward to at this year's ArtsFest?

The opening night! It should be a good party! I am really interested to see what other people are doing. The Music at the Malthouse event on September 12th sounds like fun, a sing-along to the music of Bob Dylan. I like the sound of that!

Panto society looking for new recruits

LYME Regis Pantomime Society begins its quest for talent at its first audition for "Dick Whittington" at St Michael's Parish Church Hall on September 10th.

Stage performers are invited to vie for parts in the show, to be presented at the Marine Theatre from Tuesday, February 19th to Saturday, February 23rd at 7.30pm each night.

Secretary and wardrobe mistress Shirley Colley has stressed, however, that the search is not confined to those who wish to tread the boards in the annual show.

"We are also anxious to recruit people with essential other skills needed in the production of a successful pantomime," she said.

"We need volunteers to help in various capacities off stage, such as in the props area where there is a big demand for the pantomime we have chosen.

"The society is committed to keep panto alive in the area and will be grateful to receive assistance in helping us to achieve that aim."

For the first few weeks after casting chorus rehearsals will be on Mondays, while principals will begin their preparation on Wednesdays. The groups will then progress to working together.

10 More Days of Creative Delights from Maritime Mix – London 2012 Cultural Olympiad by the Sea

The summer holidays may be drawing to a close but Maritime Mix is still going strong with 10 more days of creative delights for you all to enjoy. b-side has some tasty morsels this weekend for those of you with a liking for the unusual. Telepathic drawing lessons from The Ganzfeld Experiment are on offer at The New Inn, Portland, Saturday 1st September, 12 noon & 1pm or at Salt Bar, Brewer's Quay, Weymouth Sunday 2nd September 12 noon & 3pm. Based on the original Ganzfeld experiments from the 1930's, The Ganzfeld Machine creates a dreamlike state, thought to assist in telepathic communication. Come along and see for yourself the strange and inexplicable science of telepathy. It's a free event but you'll need to book tickets from <http://www.b-side.org.uk/festival-2012/ganzfeld-experiment>

Other delights to enjoy from the b-side programme include Lu Zheng's 'Waiting for Godot' in Chiswell Community Garden, Portland. Lu Zheng is a visiting artist from China whose sculptures emit a pulsating light triggered by the movement of the audience. As each person stands up and leaves, the light from the sculptures fade and the countdown begins. Enjoy this until 9th September.

If you're over in Portland you may also bump in to Sounding Stone's roaming choirs singing sea shanties influenced by stories and experiences of Portlanders. As part of this project you can also enjoy 'Songlines' a ranger-guided tour of Tout Quarry with the promise of pop-up choirs singing more sea shanties. Join this tour at The Drill Hall Saturday 8th September 10.30am – 12.30pm.

There's also the incredible Harmonic Fields on Portland until 9th September. This three hundred instruments installation can only be described as a sensory delight for all to experience free of charge. Sit back and listen to the instruments being played by the winds as you marvel at the beauty of the Portland landscape.

And if you're over in Poole this weekend, make sure that you don't miss Transe Express's Mobile Homme. This really will be a sight to behold as beautifully costumed drummers parade through Poole Quay before being suspended 40 metres in the air against the spectacular night sky. This free event takes place on Saturday 1st Sept from 8.30pm.

We don't have room to tell you all about every event that's still left to see so make sure that you visit our website www.maritimemix2012.co.uk, follow us on @Maritimemix2012 or like us on Facebook Maritimemix2012 to keep up to date.

Love to sing? Why not join the Uplyme Gospel Singers

UPLYME Gospel Singers currently meet on alternate Wednesday evenings from 7pm until 9pm.

The Singers have a varied repertoire, which reflects the eclectic tastes of the leaders Pete Linnett (Lyme Voices etc) and Andy Hague (Sweet Honi n' Soul).

The group sing African church songs and American Shape note for example as well as core traditional and contemporary Gospel songs. Pete has been involved in the Natural Voice Network for a number of years and brings a wealth of knowledge of world musics; Andy used to direct the Sidmouth Gospel choir and therefore knows a thing or two about contemporary Gospel.

You can come and join the Uplyme Gospel Singers at any time to see if it would suit you, but the start of term, which starts on Wednesday, September 12th, would be ideal. Pete and Andy have a suggested contribution of £4 per rehearsal, but would not want lack of finance to prevent anyone from joining and those in full-time education don't pay anything.

Although the group meet in Uplyme Church, they are not a church choir (they sing in church family services one or two times per year at most.) The Singers do most of the performing out in the community and have helped to open Lifeboat week for the past two years for example.

The Wednesday sings are more than simply rehearsals, they are family gatherings and in harmony with the music itself they are for many of the group a spiritual event. However the group has members of a number of different churches and some with no stated belief whatsoever. The thing that they do have in common is a love of singing this exuberant, emotionally expressive harmonic material. No previous singing experience is necessary, so why not come along and find out why the Uplyme Gospel Singers love to sing together.

You can check out their blog on uplymegospelsingers.wordpress.com, email them at uplymegospelsingers@hotmail.com or phone Pete on 01297 445078 or Andy 01297 552436.

DYNAMIC FEMALE DUO AT BRIDPORT ARTS CENTRE

THE dynamic female duo of Julie Dunn and Charlotte Storey will be performing at Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, September 7th.

Jazz singer, pianist, teacher and songwriter Julie Dunn has been appearing in public with increasing acclaim for the past couple of years alongside saxophonist, singer, guitarist (and Shakespeare specialist!) Charlotte Storey. The two women are dynamic performers, both with theatrical backgrounds – Charlotte's early acting career saw her understudying Jane Horrocks in Sam Mendes Donmar Warehouse production of "Cabaret" and Julie comes from a prodigiously musical and acting family, having learnt the piano from an early age and appearing in numerous productions from her childhood to the present day.

Since the very first time they met to rehearse, the two women found an uncanny synchronicity in their vocal sound; a beautiful blending of their individual voices as they harmonized from their initial meeting has led to an exquisitely crafted creative output which they offer today to their audiences in every live performance, invariably leaving them spellbound! Specializing in upbeat jazzy swing and blues together with sumptuous renditions of popular contemporary ballads by artists such as Sting, Neil Young, Tom Waits, and even latest pop sensation Adele, Charlotte and Julie have recently embarked upon a series of concerts celebrating the prolific oeuvre of Grammy award-winning artist Barbra Streisand who celebrates 50 successful years in show business this year - songs that stir the emotions and lift the spirit.

Julie Dunn and Charlotte Storey perform at Bridport Arts Centre, South Street on Friday, September 7th at 8pm. Tickets cost £10/£9 members/£7 concessions, and are available from the box office on 01308 424204

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

"I talk of dreams; which are the children of an idle brain, Begot of nothing but vain fantasy."

William Shakespeare, Romeo and Juliet

'Poet' and 'Dreamer' are words that are almost interchangeable. And that appears to be borne out by the large numbers of poems written on the subject. This one is by the black American, Langston Hughes (1902-1967).

DREAMS

Hold fast to dreams
For if dreams die
Life is broken-winged bird
That cannot fly.

Hold fast to dreams
For when dreams go
Life is a barren field
Frozen with snow.

Another American dreamer was Edna St. Vincent Millay, who won the Pulitzer Prize for Poetry in 1923

THE DREAM

Love, if I weep it will not matter,
And if you laugh I shall not care;
Foolish am I to think about it,
But it is good to feel you there.

Love, in my sleep I dreamed of waking,—
White and awful the moonlight reached
Over the floor, and somewhere, somewhere,
There was a shutter loose,—it screeched!

Swung in the wind,—and no wind blowing!—
I was afraid, and turned to you,
Put out my hand to you for comfort,—
And you were gone! Cold, cold as dew,

Under my hand the moonlight lay!
Love, if you laugh I shall not care,
But if I weep it will not matter,—
Ah, it is good to feel you there!

Of course, we non-poets have our dreams too. The famous Australian short story writer and poet, Henry Lawson, tells us about the dream of sheep shearers.

THE SHEARERS DREAM

O I dreamt I shore in a shearing shed and it was a dream of joy
For every one of the rouseabouts was a girl dressed up as a boy Dressed up like a page in a pantomime the prettiest ever seen
They had flaxen hair they had coal black hair and every shade between

There was short plump girls there was tall slim girls and the handsomest ever seen
They was four foot five they was six foot high
and every shade between

The shed was cooled by electric fans that was over every shoot

The pens was of polished mahogany and everything else to suit

The huts had springs to the mattresses and the tucker was simply grand
And every night by the billabong we danced to a German band.

Our pay was the wool on the jumbucks' backs
so we shore till all was blue

The sheep was washed afore they was shore and the rams were scented too
And we all of us cried when the shed cut out in spite of the long hot days

For every hour them girls waltzed in with whisky and beer on trays

There was three of them girls to every chap
and as jealous as they could be

There was three of them girls to every chap
and six of them picked on me

We was drafting them out for the homeward track and sharing them round like steam
When I woke with my head in the blazing sun to find it a shearer's dream

Two Actors, Too many Characters, One Big Ego!

The Six Wives of Henry VIII comes to Bridport, Lyme Regis and Dorchester

The Six Wives of Henry VIII was an undisputed hit at the Bristol Old Vic, and with live original music, embroidery, barbie dolls, silly songs and historical hysteria, it promises to be an ill-researched lesson in cross-dressing Tudor history that you'll never forget. This original play will come to the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Thursday, September 6th (Tickets are £10/£9/£7 from the Marine Theatre on 01297 442138), and opens the new autumn season at Dorchester Arts Centre on Friday September 7th (Tickets are £10/£9/£7 from Dorchester Arts Centre on 01305 266926) and at Bridport Arts Centre at 8pm on Saturday, September 8th (with tickets available from the box office 01308 424204 or the new website www.bridport-arts.com).

The three arts venues are pleased to welcome shows that have been developed at the creative centre of theatre in the South West; the Bristol Old Vic. This rip-roaring comedy will please all theatre and comedy lovers, and at just under two hours will make for a great evening out.

These talented actors developed the play together, quickly realising that Howard Coggins looks like Henry VIII. There's no escaping that. Stu McLoughlin doesn't really look like any of the wives, but he's going to give it a go.

And so Howard (Bristol Old Vic) and Stu (Kneehigh) hit upon an idea for a show which seems perfect for them. The reviews for the show when it opened in Bristol have been universally excellent and so be prepared for a hugely enjoyable evening of daft comedy, with brilliant acting and a terrific script.

Rock and blues at 115 Club

115 CLUB, Bridport's only dedicated Music and Dinner Venue last week enjoyed a lively, up beat and entertaining evening at the hands and voice of Helena.

Helena performed beautiful tracks from her own material to delectable covers including Bob Dylan, Adele and many more.

On Thursday, August 30th, once again the 115 Club will throw open the doors to an eclectic evening of Jazz, Rock and Blues from Pete Maxfield and Terry Keyworth. Both members of Trouble in Mind, Pete (double bass spectacular) and Terry (Guitar and Vocal wonder-ment) have a wealth of experience, between the two of them spanning over 40 years of musical passion. Terry first sprung onto the music scene in the late 60's with the band Wild Country, recording and gigging around the UK, later going on to work with and support such artists as Deep Purple, Status Quo and Ian Drury, with his special style of blues tinged guitar and passionate vocals Terry lights up the stage. Pete has worked with some big named acts, including recently recording with David Essex and has the enviable name as one of the country's finest bassists.

Pre-booking for dinner between 7.00pm and 8.00pm is essential and guests should telephone on the day (between 2.00pm and 6.00pm) to confirm numbers in their party. At which time they will be informed of the cover charge - anticipated at between £5 and £10 per guest. Unfortunately late-comers cannot be accommodated as dining must be completed before the music starts at about 9.00pm.

Check out www.terrykeyworth.co.uk/jazz-in-mind.php for more info! Or the 115 Club's own site at www.115club.com or www.facebook.com/115club

Learn some circus skills with B-fit

CHARLIE Bicknell recently moved from London where she worked as an actress and cabaret singer. It was whilst working on the BBC 2 series 'This Life' that she started training as an aerialist, initially on the flying trapeze then during a long west end run of Ben Elton's 'Popcorn', she started corde-lisse skills. Charlie went on to perform at the National Theatre on the rope in a production of 'The Ramayana', and later on the silks in a touring production of 'The Twits'. As a cabaret singer Charlie now combines aerial antics with live singing, and has done so at many events worldwide, from Glastonbury, to Hong Kong, Australia to London's Hippodrome. Corde lisse literally means 'smooth rope' and is a skill closely related to the silks. These were made famous most recently in the BBC 2 indent, where 2 girls (training partners of Charlie's) performed a roll down on red silks. This 'roll down' now forms a part of most routines and has been responsible for a growing fascination with the skill.

Charlie will be offering a seven week course in circus skills at Beaminsters' B-fit sports centre.

The courses are for ages 11-16 5-6pm on Mondays, and for 16+ on Mondays from 6.15-7.15pm. The course begins on September 10th, and booking is essential due to limited places. For more details see the advert (right).

Working with aerial tissu is becoming very popular in the States, both as a beautiful circus skill to learn and a great way to get fit whilst having fun. The aerial tissu, or 'Silks', are suspended from the ceiling, and students will learn to climb, wrap and perform basic poses.

These will then build towards the more complex and advanced positions, such as drops, sequences and ultimately performance.

Relative fitness levels and core strength are required.

The course will be run by Charlie who trained in corde-lisse, trapeze and silks at The Circus Space in London for 10 years. Having just won a professional actress she used aerial skills in productions for The Royal National Theatre, Birmingham Rep and South Westsides. For corporate events she has swung from London's Hippodrome, Hong Kong's theatres, and Adelaide's Grand Theatre as a Bond Girl. Charlie moved to Dorchester from London last year.

The Shed Photography 'Albion' exhibition

WE welcome you to a Shed Photography group exhibition of photography, illustration, painting and sculpture – Albion, at the Malthouse in Lyme Regis from the 17th of August until the 3rd of September. Once again we return to a theme involving our Artists and Photographers closer to our spiritual home in Lyme. Our previous exhibitions have explored the nature of viewing in 'Looking Out, Looking In' and the simple act of taking our cameras far and wide in our 'Travel' exhibition in our gallery in Barcelona. Our well-attended 'Coast' exhibition at New Year explored the Jurassic coastline and our most recent show, again back in Barcelona, at the flagship Coco-Mat store, 'Through their Eyes', concentrated on detail, and trying to imagine ourselves looking through our artists' eyes and seeing their view of the world.

We have chosen 'Albion' – the oldest known Ancient Greek name for England – as our response to the spotlight that has been shone on our island this year. Through the reminder of our heritage and the quest for greatness in the Olympic ideal, our show aims to be a celebration of our identity as a nation through photography, print and artwork. Our coastline, ancient lands, geography, humour and our identity defined by invasion, fortresses, and battles won and lost hold constant inspiration for many of our community, and we hope to explore many of their images in the exhibition.

The concept of The Shed is two-fold. Firstly it is to provide budding photographers and artists with a place to exhibit original and digital images and sell their work alongside professional photographers. Photographers are able to upload up to fifteen pieces of their work as well as a short biography for their profile page – each contributor then has their own gallery page with unlimited portfolio space, categorised and tagged by them. Our gallery site acts as a comprehensive, individual, website for each exhibitor within a larger e-commerce website managed and maintained by the Shed. Professionals and amateurs alike can be commissioned through our 'Commission' pages, with availability, price and portfolios available for the public to see.

Secondly, the company offers the service of reproducing photographic and art images onto high quality, waterproof and extremely light aluminium, across a variety of sizes. Contributors to the website are able to use their own photographs or artworks, create online portfolios in theshedgallery.com which can be uploaded instantly to be reproduced onto aluminium, whilst customers of theshedphotography.com can purchase prints on aluminium of any artists or photographers galleried on the site, or indeed their own holiday snaps through our 'print your own' service.

Customers are able to browse the site and choose which images they are interested in. They then receive their chosen images, within 10 days. The whole process is fully automated via the website www.theshedphotography.com with over 10 years of printing expertise.

The Shed also acts as an agent between photographers and those looking for a photographer for assignments, as well as a directory placing photographers directly in touch with customers. Those looking to buy work can purchase prints for personal or commercial use such as promotions and advertising. All contributors are paid monthly. In this way The Shed acts as a commercial community for photographers, who otherwise may not be doing so, to get their images noticed, published and available for sale to the general public.

Group shows for all contributing artists and photographers are held regularly in the UK and in Barcelona, Spain where the company also has a shop.

For more information, please do not hesitate to contact Adam, Chelsea or Ben at The Shed Photography: Email: info@theshedphotography.com

JESS UPTON TO PLAY AT THE BEACH

ARMED with a guitar, harmonica and the gift of the gab, Steve Wilson and Jess Upton make for a highly enjoyable evening as they run through a variety of material from the 50s to the present day, all played with excellent musicianship and sung with real feeling. Only the coldest of souls can resist the temptation to join in.

Jess is well known for the Jess Upton Soul Band, with who she played all over the country. She has worked with Sammy Hurden and Abbie Lathe in Trio Hysteria, as well as performing in The return of the Grievous Angels, a play based on the music of Gram Parsons and Emmy Lou Harris, written by Lindsay Ingram.

Steve is a talented songwriter who is gaining a great reputation with his band The Wilsons. Earlier bands include The Little Green Men. Steve also performed in Return of the Grievous Angels.

Jess Upton and Steve Wilson play at the Beach and Barnicott this Friday (August 31st) from 9pm.

Smedmore opens its house and gardens in aid of Weldmar Hospicecare Trust

Truly Scrumptious and Truly Local

The Branscombe Vale Brewery celebrates its 20th anniversary this September, with the last 20 years seeing two expansions to keep up with demand. Now Brewing 7200 pints every brew, the brewery continues to concentrate on converting West Country Barley and its own water into quality, easy drinking ales.

Four regular ales are available on draught, with the best known of these, Branoc (3.8%), winning a coveted place on the Champion's Stillage at the Great British Beer Festival in London this Summer.

THORNCOMBE OFFERS OVER £170,000

Looking for a bargain? Look no further!

This three storey cottage is situated right in the heart of this thriving West Dorset village surrounded by beautiful countryside and just 10 miles from the Jurassic coast at Lyme Regis.

The village is slightly off the beaten track and therefore very peaceful with lovely walks in every direction. Right next door to the cottage is the community run village shop and post office, which also has a cafe and many other great services on offer.

The accommodation set out over three floors, comprises three bedrooms, bathroom, spacious lounge with inglenook fireplace and woodburning stove, kitchen and ground floor shower room. Outside, to the rear is an enclosed west facing garden with greenhouse and shed. The property has central heating and double glazing but is in need of some further improvement. There are pretty countryside views over the Church yard to the front which are especially good from the top floor. Parking very nearby outside the Church is usually easy except on Sundays or when there is a wedding going on. As well as the shop and post office, the village also boasts a very busy village hall with many clubs and classes on offer, primary school in the Woodroffe pyramid, sports and social club with cricket and football clubs and small community swimming pool. With a little TLC, the cottage would make a great holiday let as well as a lovely home for someone. Please call Gordon & Rumsby on 01460 30888 or 01297 553768 for more information or to book a viewing.

Vauxhall doubles up at Business Car Technology awards

Vauxhall has scooped two "Techie" honours from the Business Car Fleet Technology Awards with the revolutionary Ampera winning best green development and Vauxhall RoadTrip named as best app.

This is the latest in a long line of significant prizes for the ground-breaking Ampera including the current European Car of the Year, What Car? Green Car of the Year and Top Gear Magazine's Green Car of the Year.

The Ampera is the first electric vehicle suitable for everyday use. Its sophisticated propulsion system offers drivers all the benefits of electric driving, without any of the range anxiety associated with pure electric vehicles (EVs). Electricity powers the wheels of the Ampera at all times, with a 16kWh lithium-ion battery pack feeding an advanced 150PS electric drive unit, delivering between 25-50 miles of battery-powered electric drive and zero tailpipe emissions.

But what sets the Ampera apart from other EVs on the market is its range extender, which boosts the car's range by up to 310 miles. A small 1.4-litre petrol-fuelled engine/generator runs at optimum efficiency, generating enough electricity to power the electric motor (but not the wheels) and operates seamlessly as part of the Ampera's powertrain. The results are a total driving range of up to 360 miles and, according to figures produced on the official European Test Cycle (ECE R101) the Ampera achieves 235.4mpg and combined tailpipe emissions of just 27g/km.

Vauxhall's RoadTrip app, available for free on iPhone and coming soon on iPad and Android, provides drivers with a fast, simple way to track their business journeys. The popular app, downloaded over 7,500 times to date, offers a range of smart features for tracking business miles, to make creating mileage claims quicker and easier.

The app allows users to choose from any vehicle from Vauxhall, as well as other manufacturers, enter a destination and plan a route. The clever app can then work out any mileage rates, what the journey will cost and any other likely expenses, without draining your phone battery by using GPS constantly to track your journey. To download the RoadTrip app and see Vauxhall's video on how to get the most out of it, drivers can visit its award-winning fleet website: www.vauxhall-fleet.co.uk/toolbox/roadtrip. RoadTrip is also available on iTunes.

"Vauxhall managed to impress the judging panel not once but twice, which is a major achievement as the Techies' entries were stronger in number and quality than ever before," said Business Car Editor Paul Barker. "The Ampera is a genuine game-changer in terms of low-emission vehicles suitable for businesses, and the excellent RoadTrip app offers great functionality and illustrates Vauxhall's innovative approach to the business car market."

"We're very pleased to have been honoured by Business Car magazine for the revolutionary Ampera and our popular RoadTrip app," said James Taylor, Vauxhall's Fleet Sales Director. "Vauxhall strives to meet the requirements of its fleet customers with innovative new products, of which Ampera and RoadTrip are just two examples."

The Techies, Business Car's Fleet Technology Awards,

now in their fourth year, are the only set of awards in the industry that specifically focus on honouring companies that use technology to help make the operation of business cars cheaper, cleaner, easier, safer and less time consuming across 12 categories. Judged by an expert panel, they focus specifically on technological innovation and expertise.

Business Car is an award-winning industry publication influencing the purchase, operation and disposal of company cars across the UK.

GEM celebrates five years of award-winning results

FOLLOWING today's announcement of the 2012 Auto Express Driver Power Survey, road safety organisation, and breakdown cover company, GEM Motoring Assist celebrates five successive years of award-winning results for its breakdown cover service.

Despite being narrowly beaten to the top spot this year, GEM is once again first for overall service as the company continues to build on its esteemed track record. GEM was voted number one for breakdown cover in 2011, 2010 and 2008 and was runner up in 2009.

The customer survey, which also includes a number of the larger breakdown firms, reveals that GEM scored more than 85.7 per cent across the five different sections, just 0.27 per cent lower than the winner's score! Importantly, GEM took the top spots in the 'speed of recovery' and 'overall service' categories, showing its ongoing commitment to providing the highest quality service to its customers.

David Williams MBE, CEO of GEM Motoring Assist, comments: "Although we are disappointed about missing out on first place, we are delighted with the customer feedback from the survey. Not only did we come first in terms of overall service but knowing that we are number one for speed of recovery is a big win for us.

"This annual survey is a key indicator to show us how our members feel about the service and, in turn, the areas we need to improve on. Coming a close second for 'friendliness and helpfulness' is a great result for our customer service team as we strive to offer our members all we can in terms of a complete breakdown service," David concludes.

Thorne eyes third
Wiscombe win

FOUR Frampton drivers battle for glory in two meetings at Wiscombe Park this coming weekend.

Two of thea villagers will battle for the honours in the over 1800cc Sports Libre category whilst there will also be representation in the Road-going Specialist Production Car class and the over 2000cc racing car division where Rod Thorne will be seeking his third Wiscombe Park victory of the season.

Hayley Thorne and Colin Pook will double drive a 5.0 litre Rover V8 powered Pilbeam MP43 in Sports Libre. The latter not having driven competitively in this country since the spring months will be looking to quickly 'get back in the groove' as he and Hayley stave-off the challenge of Doug Bennett with his massively powerful 2.3 litre turbo-charged Sylva Striker.

Frampton flag flyer Stewart Green takes his 1300cc Sylva Riot up against stern competition in the over 1800cc Road-going Specialist Production Car class. Megabusa powered Westfield SEi pilot Neal Coles has a successful record in the class but they will both have to attend to the conventional car engined Westfields of Mike Williams and Andy Cawsey.

The fourth of the quartet who will be doing battle at the wheel is Rod Thorne. Returned to the single-seater 3.5 litre Judd V8 powered Pilbeam MP58 following his sojourn in the sports racer MP43 at the July British Championship meeting, the garage proprietor will be looking to add to the brace of victories already achieved at Wiscombe Park this season.

Between him and such a feat stand the similar but three litre car of Paul Crute and Thorne's Wiscombe nemesis Terry Graves, who has gained a single at the venue this season in his Gould GR37.

John Sullivan will be joining his son, Paul, in the 1400cc to 1800cc capacity split of the Road-going Specialist Production cars in their 1600cc Westfield SEi. John from Lyme Regis, and Sullivan junior, will have fierce competition in the form of Keith Hazell in his Sylva Striker and the Stuart Taylor R1 of Geoff and Philip Pearn.

Another Lyme Regis resident, and reigning Bridge Tyres and Wheels Wiscombe Champion, Craig Moore, will be in action with his entertaining Ford Escort Mk2 in the Saturday event in the Rally Car class whilst Lee Moore will be eying victory in the up to 1400cc Road-going Specialist Production car category.

Another driver to take to the track during the Saturday meeting will be Dorchester's Timothy Topper who will be in the over 2600cc division in his BMW 3.0 CSL.

There will be events on both Saturday and Sunday which will count for a number of regional championships.

Admission is £7 for each day, accompanied children under 14 free, with free car parking. Transfer to the competitor's enclosure is free whilst catering and a licensed bar are available.

Wiscombe Park is situated north of Blackberry Camp and south of Farway Park. Follow the AA signs from Honiton and on the A3052.

Bees run riot to go second

LONGWELL GREEN 2 BRIDPORT 5
TOOLSTATION WESTERN LEAGUE PREMIER DIVISION
SATURDAY, AUGUST 25TH - ATT: 52

BRIDPORT hit Longwell Green Sports for five and in doing so climbed to second in the Toolstation Western League Premier Division, albeit having played more games than some of their rivals.

A brace from Ryan Dovell, his first since returning from Dorchester Town help secure the Bees a superb start to the new season.

He scored after just four minutes when he was on hand to pounce on the ball after the home keeper couldn't hold Dan Wise's shot as he was felled; the ref awarding the goal instead of a penalty for the foul on Wise.

Sports were unlucky to lose two players to injuries inside the first 15 minutes, before Matt Condliffe went close. Dovell had a long range left foot shot well saved as Bridport continued to dominate, whilst Sports defended well, although they had to use their last substitute following another injury.

Despite looking comfortable on the ball Bridport needed a second goal to convert their dominance, and it came just before half-time.

Condliffe was fouled on the right and Chris Clarke arrived at the far post to powerfully head home Wise's free-kick.

Sports came out fighting after the break, pinning the Bees in their own half, and pulled a goal back on the hour when skipper Andy Summers headed home from a corner. Another injury however saw Sports reduced to 10 men already having used all their subs, but it was a defensive error that restored Bridport's two goal advantage. A long punt from keeper Sam Filkins was missed by the home defence and Ben Clarke ran on before heading the ball over the advancing keeper and then holding off an opponent to run the ball into the net.

Russell Legg was booked soon after when a challenging defender put his elbow across his face. After a minor scuffle both players were booked.

Six minutes later Legg arrived at the far post to chest home the Bees fourth from a cross, and was astounded to see the ref produced a second yellow card for deliberate handball to even up the sides.

Manager Trevor Senior introduced Chris Senior and Shane Evans in place of Ben Clarke and Dovell to close the game out, pushing Condliffe forward as the lone striker. The move worked, for within minutes the versatile Condliffe produced a superb overhead kick from 12 yards to increase the visitors lead.

Sports were then reduced to nine players when the same player booked with Legg, then deliberately handled a cross into the Bees box and was duly dismissed.

Dovell then added Bridport's fifth on 80 minutes with a low, hard shot from 20 yards that zipped inside the right hand post, before Sam Downes forced the ball over the line from a corner at the second attempt for a consolation for Sports late on.

Islanders swamp Bees

BRIDPORT RESERVES 0 PORTLAND UNITED 5
DORSET PREMIER LEAGUE - TUESDAY, 21ST AUGUST

DESPITE including three first team players in their starting line-up, Bridport Reserves could not prevent Portland United's impressive start to the Magna Dorset Premier League season.

A goal up in four minutes they had gone nap by half-time, and although the Bees rallied in the second half, and generally dictated play, they didn't have the firepower to breach the Islanders defence.

Helped by some dubious refereeing from Dave Mountain, Portland made it four straight wins to the start of the season, and on this form it looks only a matter of who will be runners-up.

The visitors took the lead on four minutes when Tim Bell headed a long ball forward wide to Mitch Conning on the right wing. He cut inside before firing a left-footed shot high into the roof of the net from 15 yards.

Conning was in the wars soon after when he was involved in an aerial collision with Bees defender Sam Day, and after extensive treatment returned to the field with his head heavily bandaged, whilst Day was taken to hospital to have stitches to a nasty cut near his right eye, and was replaced by Ashley Clarke.

Portland increased their lead on 22 minutes from the first of two soft penalty decisions given by Mr Mountain. Ashley Smith turned Shane Evans and as he went passed caught the defenders trailing leg. Contact was minimal but the Somerset ref pointed to the spot after a delay. Although keeper Jamie Fry guessed correctly, Adam Linaker beat him low to his left.

A minute later Clarke blocked Bell's vicious shot with Fry stranded out of goal, but Bridport responded immediately, and visiting keeper Ashley Weekes produced a spectacular save to push Jack Scovell's fierce angled 25-yard drive wide of goal.

Mr Mountain's decisions became stranger when just before the half hour he booked Clarke for not retreating following a free-kick, his first offence, despite Linaker having more blatantly having done so three times before without a reprimand.

Smith who was the undoubted star of the first-half with his jinking runs and mesmeric feet, added the third with the goal of the game on 32 minutes - His right wing corner was cleared back to him, he cut along the byeline, checked inside, and from the most acute angle, speared a shot just inside Fry's far post where it nestled in the stanchion.

Mr Mountain, who from his decisions appeared in a world of his own for most of the match, then awarded Portland another penalty two minutes later.

Not one player appealed when Portland's Scott Henley and Adam Stordy, with no one around them, landed in a heap on the goal line following a corner which was subsequently cleared.

However the ref appeared to see something no one else in the ground had, and after a long delay signalled a penalty which Linaker despatched in the same spot as before.

The score was completed on the stroke of halftime when Linaker lobbed the advancing Fry after James Turrell's ball over the Bees defence put him free.

Bridport came out after the break with more purpose despite the scoreline, and Tristan Gale showed their intent with a superb 30-yard angled volley on the run that just cleared Weekes crossbar.

A minute later the ball was laid into Roger Cummings but his shot just went wide of the far post. Portland began to look edgy and a poor header by Jimmy Daley to his keeper just evaded Gale. Daley then had to head Scovell's cross away from under the bar as Gale moved in.

Bridport did get the ball in the net midway through the half, but Gale was adjudged offside as he neatly volleyed home Dan Wise's free-kick.

Portland's only real chance of the second-half came eight minutes from the end, but Bell was thwarted by Clarke's superb tackle as he shaped to shoot when through.

The game ended with Portland's goal still under threat and Daley almost slicing the ball into his own net from sub Harry Fleet's cross.

Bees back to winning ways

WAREHAM RANGERS 0 BRIDPORT RESERVES 2
DORSET PREMIER LEAGUE - SATURDAY, AUGUST 25TH

BRIDPORT Reserves recovered from their heavy mid-week defeat by Portland United with a solid 2-0 victory over promoted Wareham Rangers.

After an even goalless first-half, Bridport had the elements behind them after the break and took control of the game, creating three good chances before they took the lead on the hour. Michael Hailu was thwarted by Rangers keeper Sean Lillington, who produced a fantastic save form his header following a cross from Carl Bulman.

However Hailu had the last laugh when he powered home another cracking header from the resultant corner leaving Lillington, who signed Western League forms for the Bees after the match, clutching air.

Roger Cummings secured the victory ten minutes from time when he floated a superb 40 yard shot over the stranded Lillington's head.

Manager Steve Crabb who has announced that he is standing down following 11 years managing various levels of Bridport teams said: "Wareham were very committed, so this was a good win to pick us up after the Portland defeat and it was also pleasing to keep a clean sheet.

"They have some big men and so the defence came under a lot of pressure, particularly in the first-half from set pieces when they had the elements with them."

new sponsors of
Edwards Charity Cup

THE FUTURE of the revived Edwards Charity Cup was given a huge boost this week when The View From Bridport announced their sponsorship of the competition for the 2012-13 season.

The competition is a series of knockout matches between local clubs which will take place under lights on Thursday evenings during the autumn at the Bridport Football Club's main St Mary's Field pitch.

Philip Evans, managing director and editor of the newspaper part of the View From newspaper group said: "We are delighted to sponsor this year's Edwards Charity Cup. The Bridport Football Partnership have put a lot of hard work into reintroducing the event which not only is special to West Dorset clubs, but gives local footballers a chance to play under lights on an excellent pitch.

"I and colleague Stuart Broom have fond memories of playing in the competition over 40 years ago and we hope that it proves to be as popular with both local footballers and fans as it was then and they give it their support."

The draw for this year's competition, which it is hoped will feature all seven of the BFP's member clubs, will take place at Bridport's Beehive Club next Wednesday (September 5th) during the next BFP quarterly meeting.

Hounds looking good

Waytown Hounds 1 Lyme Regis XI 3

(friendly - sponsored by Beviss & Beckingsale Solicitors)
PERRY Street league division Two newboys Waytown Hounds were far from disgraced as they went down to a 3-1 defeat at the hands of a Lyme Regis XI which was bristling with players from the club's division one Reserve team WRITES HOWARD LARCOMBE.

"They look like they will certainly finish in the top half of the division," said Lyme manager Gerard Hitchcock.

Defender Wallace Blackmore put the Seaside ahead in the first-half. Dan Dunford leveled for the Hounds after the restart but further strikes from Danny Thirlwell and Ryan Fifer earned Lyme the win.

Hounds manager Mark Hughes, who selected midfielder Tom Rutland as his Man-of-the-Match, thanked the match sponsors, he said: "It was very generous of Beviss & Beckingsale to sponsor the game. It's good to be able to boost club funds at this early stage of the season when any help is more than welcome."

◆ FRIDAY evening's Chard Hospital Cup Final between Crewkerne Town and Winsham United was postponed with host club Chard Town having one eye on protecting their Zembard Lane pitch for the following day's big FA cup-tie against Plymouth Parkway.

The date of the re-arranged game is yet to be confirmed.

Bridport crushed
by Christchurch

BRIDPORT were crushed by Dorset Water Polo League champions Christchurch in the second of this summer's harbour exhibition matches.

It was apparent that they had strengthened their team further with the recruiting of a number of Southampton players for this match and this proved pivotal in the scoreline.

Although having players being excluded from the game by the referee for 20 second periods for a number of major fouls, Christchurch ended heavy victors with an arrogant performance, winning 14-2.

Bridport who finished fourth in the league avoided a whitewash by scoring twice through a defiant Basil Kidston, in undoubtedly the young player's best performance in Bridport trunks; one a long range shot picking out the top corner which was easily the goal of the match.

The next and final match of the summer in the new outer harbour at West Bay will be held on Saturday, September 1st at 6pm when a Bridport mixed team take on Salisbury.

From September, water polo training will start again at the Bridport Leisure Centre on Monday evenings at 6pm, for all ages 8 upwards. For more information contact Fred Fowler on 07917105919.

BOWLS ROUND-UP

Bridport brush aside Portland

BRIDPORT BC with Alan Brown

BRIDPORT travelled to Portland Victoria in the men's County League Division One and won on all three rinks 72-47.

Biggest winners were the four of Ben Jones, David Roberts, Tom Tocher and Bill Payne who were in commanding form from ends 15 to 20, scoring 15 shots which included a count of seven.

Ian Corke, Keith Brooks, Brian Connisbee and Chris Thorne seemed to do their scoring in bursts of three and four ends to run out 24-13 winners.

Meanwhile Barry Shortland, Mike Smith, Brian Iversen and Brian Rumble built a 18-12 lead, allowed their opponents to overtake them, but scored two shots on the last end to finish 20-19.

Bridport B lost at home to Sherborne A 48-61 but David Robbins, Norman Ludders, Norman Eccles and Derek Hoskins salvaged two points from a 17-14 success.

In Division One of the South Dorset League Bridport B ensured their place for next season with a 57-38 win over Portland Victoria.

Fred Pomeroy, John Ireland, Peter Scott and Clive Langdon only allowed their opponents four scoring ends in their 24-6 victory while Sam Dunn, David Pattermore, John Carter and Alan Cowdrey scored a count of five on the last end to win 25-14.

Bridport ladies played host to the Berkshire County Ladies tourists and after an enjoyable afternoon the visitors triumphed 118-106 with Marion Tocher, Alison Tibble, Marion Carter and Christine Cowdrey being top home rink 24-10.

A mixed party from the club enjoyed a day out to Tiverton with a trip on the canal in the rain, but the sun came out for their game in the afternoon which the host club won 99-90 with Brian Rumble's seven top for Bridport 24-15.

Bridport entertained Feniton for a mixed friendly in which the visitors whitewashed their hosts 133-78 and also played host to Yeovil who won 87-81.

BRIDPORT INDOOR with Brian Baker

MIKE Fletcher, Robin Pither and Derek Fitzgerald's Equestrians had their Charlotte Dujardin gold medal moment as they had their best win to date 19-2 over Gymnasts.

Meg Gill, Brian Cattell and Margaret Pestelle's Archers soared to the top of the table after defeating Swimmers 12-

9. Laura Trott's double gold inspired Joan Higman, Ann Parkins and Tony Sharrow's Cyclists to a 12-9 win over Sailors. Tom Daley got Alan Barr, Ann Turtell and Kay Cox's Divers smiling as they beat Wrestlers 13-8.

Gordon Lee, Keith Brown and Brian Legg's Hurdlers knocked Sprinters off of the top spot, defeating them 19-10.

Penny Pither, Gordon Lee and Ivor Parker's Apollo were the sensations in the Evening League, hammering the leading Eros 25-6.

The week's top gods award went to Ann Harris, Keith Hicks and David Conroy's Athena, a 7,4,6,5 burst saw them destroy Helios 26-6.

Beryl Stork, Sue Caen and David Drake's Poseidon had an eight count as they beat Zeus 17-9. A 4,2 finish gave Pete Cowburn, Brian Baker and Hugh Rees Hades a 20-11 win against Hermes.

A 1,5 finish by Millie Meech, Derek Harp and Bob Hill's Pan saw them defeat Aphrodite 18-11.

LYME REGIS with Paul Moffitt

THIS has been a very quiet week for the Club, a week in which all league teams have been rested.

Elsewhere, the triples team from Worthing failed to deliver in their final against Wellworthy and were well beaten by a better side on the day.

There were only two friendlies, both against Sherborne, home and away.

Although Lyme managed to scrape home by the odd shot in the away tie they failed to capitalise on their home turf going down by five shots.

Football Partnership continues to flourish

WORKING together, local football clubs in Western Dorset are achieving so much more.

That was the message from Bridport Football Partnership chairman Geoff Joy at the start of another season which sees their member clubs continuing to enjoy improved facilities as a direct result of the achievements of the umbrella organisation.

"By sharing each other's limited capacity and working together to improve local facilities and help increase participation in the organised form of the sport, we have done so much more than any club could have done on their own."

Former Bridport stalwart and Dorset manager Mr Joy said the football facilities now available in Bridport and Beaminster had dramatically improved over the last decade through the partnership's access to grant aid, technical know-how and general back up support for local clubs.

The Partnership continues to organise coaching courses to spread the necessary knowledge and skills to support the work of local teams and in the past year this has been supported by the sponsorship of an emergency aid course, an annual summer soccer school for local youngsters and the revival of the Edwards Charity Cup competition.

Mr Joy praised the positive and valued contribution of Beaminster FC's Dave Pearson since the club joined the partnership and said it was fitting that his club had won the re-launched competition which allowed junior clubs an opportunity to play on a senior pitch under floodlights.

"I trust that we will continue to run this popular competition for years to come and endeavour to do so at a profit so we can support our other work, rather than the loss we made last season."

The next major initiative for the Partnership is the Town Council led project to develop a multi-use games area on the site of Bridport FC's car park alongside St Mary's Field.

"We would like to thank all those people who supported our annual duck race and help raise £2,000 towards our community projects and hope that all local clubs will both continue to contribute to and benefit from our joint successes in the year ahead," added Mr Joy.

He also paid tribute to his fellow Partnership officers, Mike Thompson, Wayne Causley and Tony Unsworth for their unstinting efforts in making the organisation such an ongoing success.

INSIDE EDGE - DORSET CRICKET ROUND-UP

Martinstown one win from promotion

ONLY one game involving local sides managed to produce a result, and that was on a reduced run-rate writes Howard Larcombe.

However, it was a very important one, with Martinstown beating league leaders Wimborne & Colehill 2nds to move into second spot after Shillingstone's match was cancelled.

They now need to beat Christchurch on Saturday to join Wimborne, who despite the defeat are promoted.

The weather did neither Weymouth 2nds or Dorchester 2nds any favours. The rain that caused the match to be abandoned at tea confirmed Weymouth's relegation, but it also means that Dorchester 2nds could now be relegated with them.

The result of this Saturday's clash with Poole Town 2nds, the last game of the season, deciding who goes down with them.

Meanwhile, Bridport are relegated from Division Three.

Dorset Funeral Plan League Premier League

STALBRIDGE V DORCHESTER - MATCH CANCELLED.

WEYMOUTH 164 ALL OUT

V PARLEY - MATCH ABANDONED.

A SOLID half-century from Jonny Armfield was the highlight of Weymouth's innings when they hosted league leaders Parley at Redlands.

However his efforts were in vain as rain at tea led to the game being called off before the visitors could reply.

Armfield and Jim Ryall had made a good start putting on 34 and seeing off the opening bowling attack of Alex Nippard and Tom Blackley. Ryall then hit first change spinner Sam Thomson's second ball back over his head, but unfortunately next ball tried an audacious reverse sweep and was trapped leg before wicket.

Tom England (24) help consolidate the Seaside's position, but once he went only Ben Lawes (10) and Kieron Womble (12) reached double figures in support.

Armfield's fifty came in 106 balls, and occupied the crease for 163 minutes. His 60 took 124 balls with just one four.

Despite not finishing the game Weymouth picked up eight points, the third best points of the day in the Premier League.

This means they only need five from their last game of the season this Saturday against Stalbridge at Redlands, and more importantly for bragging rights, just one to be guaranteed of finishing above Dorchester.

Division Two

WITCHAMPTON 24-2 V

BEAMINSTER - MATCH ABANDONED.

DORCHESTER 2ND V

WEYMOUTH 2ND 142-7 - MATCH ABANDONED.

WIMBORNE & COLEHILL 2ND 107-8 LOST TO MARTINSTOWN 187-6 BY 10 RUNS (REDUCED TARGET).

THIS win over league leaders Wimborne & Colehill means that Martinstown could clinch promotion in their final game of the season on Saturday if they beat Christchurch.

Having lost the toss Martinstown had to withstand some good bowling, but Ed Nichols anchored the innings with a fine 71 that included eight fours.

Despite the loss of Lee House (3) on 26, Henry Lewis (15) helped take the score to 59 before he departed, quickly followed by Liam Banfield for a duck to leave the visitors on 61-3. Skipper Danny Dancer (18) added 44 with Nichols for the fourth wicket and an unbeaten seventh wicket stand of 41 between Rob O'Brien (23 not out) and Matt Camp (24 not out) saw Martinstown post a reasonable target of 187-6 from 42 overs, three having been lost to rain.

With a revised target of 181, Wimborne also found runs hard early on with Camp (0-13 off seven) and Chris Read (0-18 off eight) particularly restricting Kevin Hall who scored 22 off 67 balls.

Heavy rain then sent the players off for the best part of an hour after which Wimborne were set a revised target of 117 off 27 overs.

This completely changed the dynamics of the game as Wimborne went for their runs, but with Dancer (3-39) and Banfield (3-35) taking wickets at regular intervals the game slowly swung Martinstown's way.

The dismissal of danger man Ben Radcliffe (30) to a great catch on the mid-wicket boundary by Read was the pivotal point, as Wimborne fell 11 runs short of victory with two wickets left on 107-8.

Dancer said: "This was a really good win with a few guys out, but we batted pretty well in difficult conditions. Ed batted superbly and Matt and Rob scored some really important runs at the end.

"Then Read and Matt bowled really accurately to restrict them before we went off for rain which completely changed the game, and with a revised target they came out firing and always looked like getting the runs.

"However Read took a great catch on the boundary and that seemed to be the moment when I felt we were on top.

"It was a great game played in the right spirit, and credit to their captain for getting the ground fit again after the heavy rain. I hope we can perform well next week against Christchurch."

CATTISTOCK 184-8 - MATCH ABANDONED.

CATTISTOCK appeared in a good position against high flying Winton 2nds when rain prevented the players coming out after tea.

Although they lost Buddy Langford for a duck with the just two on the board, skipper Ben Gollidge (38) and a half-century from Steve Tucker put on a century stand for the second wicket.

Despite a 15 minute break for a shower, Cattistock posted a good target on a wet wicket which by tea was looking in a poor state, but persistent rain caused the match to be abandoned. Cattistock picked up 10 points for the efforts which sees them in fourth spot.

Bass Bottle Perpetual Trophy
2nd Leg

(Lyme won 12-4 on agg)

LYME Regis Bantams went goal-crazy at Venlake on Thursday evening with an 8-2 thrashing of Uplyme Reserves.

In truth the game turned with the score at 2-2 when referee Lance Turner saw fit to send off Uplyme defender Stuart King just before half-time for threatening and abusive language.

Earlier Uplyme, trailing 4-2 from the first leg, took the lead in the eighth minute when Stuart Wooster slotted past Lyme 'keeper Ryan Turner.

The Seasiders levelled in the 25th minute when Pete Peacock tapped-in after a Fred Thomson shot had hit both posts.

after when Turner could only parry a thunderous free-kick from King high up in to the roof of the net.

The second Lyme equaliser arrived in the 35th minute when Uplyme 'keeper was adjudged to have handled outside of his area.

The decision saw tempers both on and off the pitch rise but up stepped Ben Morgan to curl home a sublime 20-yard free-kick.

The King red-card put a cloud over the game but both sets of players continued to contest the game in a good spirit.

Lyme took the lead soon after the restart when Thomson bustled his way through the depleted Uplyme back line.

Thomson added his second minutes later with an inch-perfect chip to give Brimicombe no chance and The Seasiders never looked back.

Jon Matthews got on the end of a Ryan Fifer cross to make it 5-2 with a neat side-foot.

The lead was extended by James Bennett who nodded home a Jack Turner cross despite the best efforts of Brimicombe.

Centre-back Wallace Blackmore headed home number seven before Morgan smashed home a 35-yard scorch to round-off the scoring.

A Lyme Regis XI beat Yeovil League outfit Templecombe on Saturday afternoon.

The Seasiders led through a Julien Simier goal at half-time. Ben Strong and Ryan Fifer made it 3-0 before Simier added his second late-on.
